

TAMPA BAY TITANS GENERAL RULES

Behavior off the ice

At the Rink

Leave the locker room clean. Teams' responsibility not just the last guy out of the locker room.

No actions or behavior at the rink, which would reflect poorly on the Team.

- Fighting
- Vandalism
- Theft

Away towns and hotels

No actions or behavior at the Hotel, which would reflect poorly on the Team.

- Fighting
- Vandalism
- Theft

Nothing will be tolerated at the Hotels. If a complaint makes it to the coaching staff and someone on our team caused it, that player will be off the team.

Curfews will be set on the road and will be enforced. Anyone caught out after curfew will not play the next game.

Airplanes

Same attire as if you were going to a game.

Any problems on a plane will be dealt with severely.

Practices

Before practice

Arrive at the rink 30 minutes before practice.

Be dressed and ready 5 minutes before practice.

Anyone who cannot make practice must call one of the coaches before practice.

No call, then you will not play the next game. No exceptions.

Late to practice will be dealt with in practice. But, if it becomes routine, than you will set out a period and if it still persists you will miss a game. And if it still continues you will be asked to not play anymore.

On ice

Will have two sticks with them for practice.

Screwing around on ice will not be tolerated. Anyone who becomes a constant problem will start to miss periods and then games.

After practice

Everyone will pick up pucks and put them into the bags and everyone will pick up water bottles and bring them into the locker room.

Will make sure locker room is clean after practice.

Drugs and Alcohol

There will be no tolerance of drugs and alcohol at any team function, hotel, or anywhere you represent the team. There will be no second chance. You will be asked to leave the team.